Name of Current Water Company:

Act 769 of the Arkansas Legislature provides that a water system shall withhold service to a person who is delinquent on the payment of a bill to another water system until notified that the delinquency has been cured. The delinquency must be undisputed and shown to be properly due and owed by the individual. A court may hold an individual liable for attorney fees and other costs associated with the collecting a delinquency. The legislation is not applicable to water systems regulated by the Public Service Commission.

This water system is not regulated by the Public Service Commission, therefore, please fill the information out below so that we may provide you with service.
